Broke Four Ribs.

John Wingart, an expressman, residing at 3911 Wetzel street, fell from his wagon yesterday and alighted on a post breaking four ribs. Dr. John R. Pipes reduced the fracture.

Stray Horse Found.

At an early hour yesterday morning Pete Dean found a horse without saddle or other accoutrements wandering about the streets. He captured the beast and put it up in a livery stable to await the owner. Up to last night it had not been called for.

Their Skiff Was Stolen.

A party of young folks rowed over to West Wheeling the other night in a skiff, and after taking a walk to Kirkwood, returned, to find the skiff stolen. The entire party was compelled to walk up to Bridgeport, cross the suspension bridge and walk down to Ritchietown.

Wedded to Avoid Prosecution.

The case of Myrtle Linwood, before Squire Davis, was continued until this evening, her counsel, Col. Arnett, being occupied with another case. Nellie Hamilton, prosecuting witness, claims to have been married yesterday, and thinks she can thereby head off any counter charge that may be brought by the Linwood woman.

The Dog Bit the Child.

Yesterday afternoon, Councilman O'Kane brought a fine little black water spaniel to the public building and informed Chief Delbrugge that it had bit one of his children, and that he wanted the animal shot before he did further damage. One bullet from the chief's ivory-handled Smith & Wesson did the work, and the brute was sent to the crematory.

The Blockpiper Robbery.

Yesterday William Blockpiper, whose store in Elmville was robbed Saturday night, swore out a search warrant before Squire Howell, of Bridgeport, and made a search of the house of John Cox, where they found a bundle of goods stolen from the store. Yesterday, Cox and Ed Anderson, who had left the package there, were given a preliminary hearing before Squire Howell. Cox was found to be innocent of any connection with the theft, but Anderson was held for court.

Equalization and Appeals.

The Board of Equalization and Appeals met at the Public Building yesterday and set the following days for hearing complaints from the various wards: First ward, Tuesday, August 25; Second ward, Wednesday, August 26; Third ward, Thursday, August 27; Fourth ward, Friday, August 28; Seventh ward, Monday, August 31; Fifth ward, Tuesday, September 1; Sixth ward, Wednesday, September 2; Eighth ward, Thursday, September 2.

In Clerk Hook's Office.

Three deeds of trust and the following transfer of real estate were admitted to record yesterday:

A deed made April 29, 1884, by Vincent H. Van Meter to Benjamin A. Biggs in consideration of $150, for lot No. 45 fronting on Liberty street in the town of West Liberty, with all privileges except that Joseph C. Hedges shall not be prohibited from obtaining water from a well on the aforesaid premises.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to John Werner, aged twenty-eight, a native of Cumberland, Md., and a resident of Wheeling, and Nellie Bowen, aged twenty-one years, a native of Parkersburg and a resident of Wheeling.

"The Bottom of the Sea."

The successful marine spectacle entitled "The Bottom of the Sea," will be produced at the Opera House, Friday and Saturday, August 28 and 29, Saturday matinee. The piece abounds in scenic and mechanical effects of unusual brilliancy. It has enjoyed long runs in Boston and New York. One scene of special beauty is that from which the piece derives its title, showing the bottom of the sea with divers at work on the wreck of a sunken ship, in which the resources of scenic and mechanical ingenuity have been exhausted. The play is an adaptation from the French, by William A. Brady. The scenery was painted for this production by John A. Young of the Broadway Theatre, New York, and includes the exterior of an ocean steamship, a full-rigged yacht at sea, the deck of a French man-of-war, a transformation scenes and other interesting features.

Mr. Keene's Coming.

Sunday's Cincinnati Enquirer said: The distinguished tragedian, Mr. Thomas W. Keene, begins his season at Wheeling on the 27th inst., and will work directly West, so as to cover the Puget Sound and Pacific Coast country, in which he is very popular, before February. Mr. Keene's supporting company is a very strong one, as the roster shows. Frank Henning, Julius Scott, John Hanzen, Thomas E. Eagleson, Carl Ahrendt, Edward Curtis, Edwin Phillips, Ferd Reinhardt, Benjamin E. Howard, Hugh Mackay, Marwood Andrews, J. J. Cummings, Miss Alberta Gallatin, Miss Henrietta Vanders, Mrs. S. A. Baker, Mrs. Hannah Bailey, Master Sargent and Charles Sands. Mr. William F. Dickson will be his manager during the early part of his season. Mr. Keene will play "Richard III," "Louis XI," "Richieu," and "Shylock." He is in splendid health and eager to be in harness again.

Few children can be induced to take physic without a struggle, and no wonder—most drugs are extremely nauseating. Ayer's Pills, on the contrary, being sugar-coated, are easily swallowed by the little ones, and are, therefore, the favorite family medicine.

IT WILL HOLD WATER.

The New Big Reservoir has been brimming full for forty-eight hours.

Three weeks or so ago water was pumped into the new city reservoir on the hill until it stood ten or twelve feet deep, and there it remained until last Saturday, not even falling as much as it was expected to from evaporation.

This was because the air was very damp, and much rain and dew fell. Saturday evening the water was all allowed to run out, and the Worthington pump in the power house was set to work and the basin pumped even full. Last evening it was to all appearances exactly as full as when the pump stopped working. There was no leakage, evidently. The water will probably be allowed to remain for several weeks. This experiment is expected to settle the question, if, indeed, any question now exists, whether the reservoir will reserve. The members of the water board are understood to have no doubt that it will hold water, and the experiment now in progress is made simply to make assurance doubly sure.

DR. CUNNINGHAM'S RETURN.

Saddened by the Death of his Niece—Talk of a Reception.

Rev. Dr. Cunningham and wife, now en route home from Europe, had expected to stop on the way from New York to Wheeling at Wilkesburg, Pa., to visit their niece, Mrs. May Sinclair Moore, whose death, announced in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER, caused deep sorrow to her many friends in Wheeling. She and her twin sister, Mrs. Brace, of Pittsburgh, were brought up in Dr. Cunningham's family. The home-coming will be saddened by this bereavement.

It has been the intention of the members of Dr. Cunningham's church to tender him a reception upon his return to Wheeling on September 3. A meeting had been arranged for last night at the office of the Underwriters' Insurance Company of the male members of the church to make the arrangements. In view of Mrs. Moore's death, no definite plan was formed, but a committee of six was appointed to make arrangements and report at a future meeting. The committee consists of Messrs. W. A. List, Howard Hazlett, J. N. Vance, Robert White, James Rhodes and Alfred Pannil.

IN POLICE COURT.

A Big Grist of Varied Cases Heard by the Mayor Yesterday.

In police court yesterday morning, John Balden, a plain drunk was fined $1 and costs; paid. Annie Preston, keeper of a house of ill fame and four inmates and eleven male visitors were assessed the usual sum. Louise Williams, a disorderly person, was fined $5 and costs. Her mother was also in court but her case was continued till today. She was very saucy and asked that a list of twenty-five witnesses from over in Ohio be called to testify as to her character. The mayor consented to call about ten of those she wanted. Annie Brown alias "Jinnie Slain" and Dan Cady were charged with being out for immoral purposes. Cady paid $5 and costs and Annie went to jail. Jacob Yockey was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. Robert Muldoon, a marble cutter and incidentally a plain drunk was sent to the hill for thirty days. John Divlin and Thomas Duffly were sent on their way rejoicing. They were tramps and the mayor decided to let the Ohio authorities wrestle with them a while.

ROBBED BY HIS ROOMMATE.

A Stranger Wants to Kill the Fellow That Did Him Up.

Night before last two men were assigned to the same room at John Klieves's boarding house, on the wharf. Neither had any baggage, and both paid in advance for lodging and breakfast. Yesterday morning the proprietor was behind the bar, when one of the men came dashing down stairs, coatless, hatless and breathless, with a pistol in his hand and fire in his eye. He announced that he could whip the blank-blank red-headed, blankety-blank who had robbed him. His room mate was the red-headed person referred to. He had arisen early, gently removed the other man's clothing from beneath the pillow, took a modest roll of wealth and left by the side door, not stopping to eat the breakfast he had paid for.

The moral of this sort of robbery, which is not uncommon, is that people should leave their valuables with the proprietor before retiring to sleep in the same room with a stranger.

YORKVILLE MINERS' STRIKE.

It has not been settled, as at One Time Appeared—A Large Meeting of Miners.

A very lively and spirited meeting of the coal miners' local union 454, of Yorkville, was held at that place yesterday afternoon to discuss the advisability of returning to work, and it was at one time thought a free-for-all fight would ensue. Some of the men have been notified individually to return to work, which is not in conformity with the union's ideas. The meeting was public, and was attended by over 220 people. It was in the open air opposite the company's store. After fully discussing the affair, a committee was appointed to wait on Manager Ewing and state their case and say that they would not return to work until all the men were taken back. The manager replied that he would hire whom he pleased. This was reported to the meeting, and it was decided to continue the strike, which has been on for over three months. Several Hungarians have been engaged from Short Creek, but whether they will take the strikers' places cannot be said.
